Mellanox Sends Letter to Shareholders

Best-In-Class Governance Proposals Maximize Shareholder Choice

Company Achieved Record Quarterly Revenue and Increased 2018 Outlook

SUNNYVALE, Calif. & YOKNEAM, Israel--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Mellanox Technologies, Ltd. (NASDAQ:MLNX), a leading supplier of high-performance, end-to-end smart interconnect solutions for data center servers and storage systems, today announced that its Board of Directors is mailing a letter to shareholders, along with the Company's definitive extraordinary general meeting (EGM) proxy statement. The letter highlights Mellanox's two best-in-class governance proposals and its strong first quarter 2018 earnings performance.

The full text of the letter follows:

May 07, 2018

Dear Fellow Shareholders,

At Mellanox's extraordinary general meeting of shareholders ("extraordinary general meeting") on May 24, 2018, you will be asked to vote in favor of two best-in-class governance proposals that will allow shareholders to vote for the individual director candidates of their choosing at Mellanox's 2018 annual general meeting of shareholders ("annual general meeting").

Extraordinary General Meeting Proposals Are Designed to Enhance Shareholder Choice in a Contested Election

The two proposals on which you will vote are:

Plurality Voting in the Event of a Contested Election

A plurality vote standard has been adopted by the vast majority of U.S.-listed companies for contested elections. In a contested election under our current majority voting standard, it would be possible for fewer than 11 director candidates to receive the necessary majority of votes cast as required to be elected. Any vacancies would then be filled by the majority-elected directors rather than by our shareholders. With a plurality vote standard, the Mellanox Board of Directors ("Board") would consist of the director nominees receiving the greatest number of votes. Therefore, all of the directors who serve on the Board would be elected directly by our shareholders.

Use of Universal Proxy Cards in the Event of a Contested Election

The adoption of a universal proxy card will provide for all nominees put forth by either the Board or a shareholder of Mellanox to be listed together on any proxy card sent to shareholders. Having a universal proxy card would enable shareholders to elect any combination of director nominees they choose. Without a universal proxy card, shareholders may only validly submit one proxy card which would include those nominees put forth either by the Board or a shareholder (but not both), meaning our shareholders could not cast votes by proxy card for nominees from both the Board and a shareholder as they could when voting in person.

"In Mellanox's case, the company's decision to adopt plurality voting and a universal card in a contested election represents a positive development. It is difficult to imagine the company receiving anything less than resounding support for the two proposals at its upcoming EGM."

Mellanox Recently Achieved Record Quarterly Revenues and Increased its 2018 Outlook

Mellanox is focused on executing its long-term growth strategy. The Company is expanding its market share and growing while maintaining its competitive advantage of superior technology to create cutting-edge solutions for Infiniband and 25 gigabit per second and above Ethernet. At the same time, the Company continues to optimize efficiencies, rationalize investments and improve operating margins.

In fact, Mellanox's strong first quarter 2018 earnings performance was a result of the successful execution of its growth strategy. First quarter revenue of $251 million exceeded the top end of the Company's upwardly revised first quarter outlook of $240 to $250 million, and increased 33 percent year-over-year. First quarter Ethernet revenues increased 70 percent year-over-year, primarily due to expanding customer adoption of 25 gigabit per second and above products globally. Mellanox is benefiting from strategic investments made in prior years and is now a primary global supplier of 25 gigabit per second Ethernet adapters. First quarter non-GAAP operating margin of 21% exceeded Mellanox's prior full year 2018 forecast of 18% to 19%, demonstrating Mellanox's commitment to deliver higher operating leverage. Further, the increased full year 2018 outlook of 21% to 22% is based on the strength of the first quarter and the increased visibility into market trends for the remainder of 2018.

In addition to continued focus on innovation, Mellanox remains committed to delivering increasing levels of operating leverage during 2018. The Company is focusing investments on businesses with significant potential for growth and high return on invested capital. Due to ongoing tight control on operating expenses, the Company expects its second quarter non-GAAP operating expenses to be flat to down on a sequential basis.

Looking ahead, Mellanox believes its strong product cycles and share gain momentum have potential to allow for substantial growth, while also allowing for improvements to our overall profitability.

Your Vote is Important to Ensure that the Mellanox Board Composition Reflects Your Intentions

The Board and management team continue to work to provide enhanced value to our shareholders. Along with this letter, you will find the proxy materials necessary to vote on our best-in-class governance proposals: establishing a plurality vote standard and requiring the use of a universal proxy card for contested elections. Definitive copies of the proxy materials have been filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and are publicly available at <https://www.stockholderdocs.com/mlnx>.

The Board is committed to protecting and growing your investment. Voting "FOR" each of these two proposals at the extraordinary general meeting will align our governance policies with best practices to protect your interests and ensure that the composition of the Board fairly reflects your intentions.

The accompanying notice and proxy statement of the extraordinary general meeting contain details about the business to be conducted at the extraordinary general meeting. Please read these documents carefully.

Sincerely,

Irwin Federman
Chairman of the Board

Eyal Waldman
President, CEO and Director
